948,000 hunters & anglers spent $1.9 billion in 2011

SPORTSMEN BENEFIT THE STATE ECONOMY

948,000 people (residents and non-residents) hunted or fished in Alabama in 2011, more than the combined populations of the five largest cities in the state - Birmingham, Montgomery, Mobile, Huntsville and Tuscaloosa (948,000 vs. 884,000).

Alabama's resident sportsmen and women could fill the University of Alabama's Bryant-Denny football stadium more than seven times (744,000 sportsmen vs. 101,821 seating capacity).

Sportsmen and women spent $1.9 billion on hunting and fishing in Alabama in 2011 - that is more than the state's revenues from all crops ($1.9 billion vs. $1.17 billion).

Hunters and anglers support more jobs in Alabama than Redstone Arsenal, the largest employer in the state (37,476 vs. 25,373).

Spending by sportsmen and women in Alabama generated $165 million in state and local taxes in 2011 - that's enough to support the average salaries of 4,151 police and sheriff's patrol officers.

Every single state makes a contribution.
